Then the people rejoiced because they had offered so willingly, for they made their offering to the Lord with a whole heart, and King David also rejoiced greatly."

March Gladness

Have you been feeling the heaviness of what feels like heartache in many places? Looking for something to be excited about? Perhaps you'll consider March Gladness! It's a feeling accessible to any believers whose faith remains in Jesus Christ.

All over the world, millions of people are filled with anticipation for special events that happen on annual schedules; but, there's nothing more exciting than knowing you can have a personal relationship with the Creator of the heavens and earth.

It's no secret that life during (and after) the pandemic has been heartwrenching for many. Nevertheless, God promises us that "we are troubled on every side, yet not distressed. We are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed."

Even on the worst of days, we can rest assured that God will never leave us nor forsake us. Not only does He give us a peace that transcends all understanding, but we can be secure in our salvation that we will spend eternity with Him!

Five Fun Things to Try During Spring Break 2022

Looking for fun on spring break that won't break the bank? Try these on for size!

1. Visit a nearby city that you've never toured before. You may be surprised at how many treasures are nestled right next door.
2. Make your own digital picture portfolio. Grab your camera, and snap the most interesting indoor and outdoor events that you find intriguing – and if you'd like, share it on social media!
3. Dive into a good book! The options are endless, whether you order one or check one out from your local library. You might even look into exploring a new genre!
4. Have a good old fashioned board-game party. The fun you could have by calling up a few classics may leave you surprised (Monopoly anyone?)
5. Start a garden! Nurturing plants have an unusual way of eliciting calmness and compassion. Sink into the serenity of growing your own food, flowers or herbs to enjoy.

There are plenty of ways to relax, relate and release for this week-long moment. Make sure you make the most of it! Enjoy!

Sesquicentennial ANNIVERSARY

Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church's Sesquicentennial Celebration, 1872-2022

March 2022 marks the beginning of Good Hope's 150-Year history of loving God, loving all people and changing the world in order to make disciples of Jesus Christ. This Sesquicentennial Anniversary is too big for just one day, so we are planning a yearlong celebration to commemorate the vision, hope and courage of our founding pastor, Father Samuel Grantham, (1872-1891) and the five pastors who have followed him:

- Rev. Charles H. Hunt (1893-1921)
- Rev. Henry C. Cashaw (1922-1934)
- Rev. Albert A. Lucas (1935-1963)
- Rev. Crawford W. Kimble (1964-1994)
- Pastor D.Z. Cofield (1994- Present)

For 150 years, these six phenomenal pastors have led the members of Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church to the milestone we have reached today. As we celebrate this amazing feat as a church family, may we continue to be true worshippers, worshipping God in Spirit and in Truth.

It is such an honor that as we celebrate our Sesquicentennial, many of our current members are part of families who have been worshipping at Good Hope for 5 to 6 generations! Pastor Cofield is encouraging all of us to be a part of this history making moment. Since we are a multigenerational church, our yearlong Sesquicentennial Celebration will include our children, youth, young adults, adults, seniors and super seniors.

Our 150th Anniversary celebration will begin with in-person worship on Sunday, March 27, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. Save the Date! On Saturday, April 23, 2022, we will continue to celebrate our Sesquicentennial Celebration with a banquet at the Hyatt Regency Houston Galleria Hotel. The banquet begins at 6:00 p.m., and features a wide array of entertainment.

This is only the beginning! Remember, we will be celebrating our 150th Church Anniversary all year long, so stay tuned for future upcoming events!
