★ HAPPY ★
INDEPENDENCE
DAY

Houston is hot, but there are plenty of fun things you can do this summer! Looking for a little more entertainment? Try these on for size – but don't stop there. The sky's the limit!

01 Learn How to Make Your Signature Lemonade – That's right! Find a classic lemonade recipe, but give it a signature twist! What will make yours different? Mango? Blueberries? Mint? Bon Appetit!

02 Eat Foods That Are Herbalicious – By planting an herb garden of your own! It's quick, inexpensive and easy. Where will your palate take you? Fresh herbs are waiting!

03 Have a Bubble Bash – Invite friends and family over to blow bubbles of all shapes and sizes. Whether you use a summer fun machine or an old fashion wand, you'll be glad you did.

04 Pick Berries at a Farm – Nothing says summer like fresh, ripened fruit. Find a local spot where you can pick your own berries and bring them back to make sweet and savory dishes.

05 Plan a Morning Picnic – Beat the heat and flip the script by having a breakfast picnic. Choose your favorite handheld delights and enjoy the part of the day that's soothing instead of sizzling!

These are just a few ideas to get you started, but there's plenty of summer fun left for you to explore. Enjoy the adventures!

Five Fun
Things to Do
This Summer

Summer
Fun

Voices are dancing.
Laughter playing in the sun.
Shining inside out.

Sundae Sundays
Sugary cool treats.
Popsicles and ice cream cones.
Sweet relief from heat.

Friends & Family
Music fills the air.
Hearts are filled with love and glee.
Magic memories.

Summer
Reading!

Have you checked out the latest program from the Houston Public Library? The John P. McGovern 2023 Summer Reading Program is in full effect and this year's theme is, "All Together Now!" Kids four and younger have a reading goal of 30 books, while older kids, teens and adults have a goal of reading for 30 days.

Those who sign up for the program can track their reading by logging it in, and then they'll have the opportunity to win cool prizes! Even better, reading with someone or having someone read to you still counts towards the goal! Readers can also listen to audio books or read with their family! Don't miss your chance to open a book to a world of adventures. To find out more, visit www.houstonlibrary.org/srp!

National Ice Cream Month

Putting the "I" in Ice Cream!

As summer temperatures soar, delving into a cool cup of ice cream seems that much more inviting – and you could personalize it by hosting your own ice cream social! Whether you choose to do a contemporary dessert bar with your favorite fixings or let guests help themselves to soft serve cones and sorbets – July is the perfect time to celebrate National Ice Cream Day with a shin-dig of your own. Ready to get the party started? Just say when!

In alignment with the youth Rooted & Grounded series, our TRU Youth Ministry will host a lemonade stand. Please support our youth as they practice the principles the lesson of Spending, Sharing, Saving, and Serving others!

HANDS OF HOPE

FIGHT THE GOOD FIGHT

2 Timothy 4:7-8

Good Hope is pleased to announce "Hands of Hope" which is the newest addition to our youth ministry.

Hands of Hope is a Christ-centered boxing program designed to help 7th - 12th grade youth build character, develop discipline, and learn about God while discovering the amazing science of boxing.

The ministry offers:

- A safe place away from negative influences and idle time
- A supportive environment conducive to confidence building, learning, fitness, and fun
- Life skills to assist with decision making, commitment, dedication, goal setting, and work ethic
- God-focused leadership
- A Christian based program designed to weave God's love into sports

The ministry will kick-off with a summer camp July 5 - August 5. The registration fee is $25 and financial assistance is available.!
