GREAT SEED - GOOD SOIL - MUCH FRUIT

TO THRIVE IN 25

Many of us make plans for each new year to be and do better. We plan to eat healthier and exercise more to lose weight. We plan to save money for that car or house we have been dreaming about. We may even plan to finally pursue our dream job.

All those things are nice, earthly pursuits, but pale in comparison to the heavenly reward of following and being obedient to God's plans.

In this new year, take the steps to become Rooted and Grounded in God's word. Join a L.Y.F.E. (Living Your Faith Everyday) group to learn how to be a disciple who makes disciples. Kickoff for Rooted, Purpose Driven Life, Experiencing God 1, and Experiencing God 2 is January 12. Sign up today and make your New Year's Resolution to "Make the main thing the only thing".

THE SAME GOD, A BETTER you

If you're like most, the beginning of the year may find you in a moment of reflection. We're thankful for many blessings, at times, grieving those who didn't make it to the New Year with us; but, many people cite the phrase, "New Year, New Me." As believers, we have an added benefit. Not only can we be better, but we can have confidence that the God we serves remains the same!

This year, let's choose to reflect on the strengths that we find in God's consistency: He is faithful. He is true. He is merciful – and He is never surprised. With that in mind, let's consider how we could improve. Here are a few suggestions that you may find helpful!

- Examine your time. Pay special attention to the excess moments (i.e., time spent on frivolous things) and consider how you can allot it (instead) to the realization of meaningful goals.

- Review your relationships. Look at which ones are healthy, and nurture those. Reevaluate those that are weighing you down and make the tough, but necessary decisions.

- Maximize your financial health. Put discipline first, and make the money choices that will benefit you most in the long term!

The New Year's just begun! Even if you've had a slow start, there's plenty of time to realign. Celebrate the notion that He's the same God, and resolve to be a better you. Have a Happy and Prosperous New Year!

Making a Difference in Honor of MLK Day

For many, it seems just moments ago that Dr. King's voice could be heard across the airwaves with one of his riveting speeches. His compelling cadence undoubtedly summoned the hearts of many who believed in his message. How do we continue to honor his legacy as we celebrate the federally recognized honor bearing his name today? Simple: by ensuring that the causes we champion would make him proud.

We can start by reliving the moments in which he communicated his dreams and values – reading and sharing his speeches which are widely accessible both online and in libraries. His words are even more powerful than ever as we continue to see tides change with efforts towards making racial milestone. We can also take a virtual civil rights tour, by visiting sites like the National Civil Rights Museum and the Smithsonian, which will allow you to "explore history from the comfort of your home."

Dr. King's dream lives best through those who work towards making it a reality. Celebrate this year by becoming more educated, empowered and enthused about the wonderful work yet to be done. We all have a part – Happy MLK Day!

Dr. King's Vision

In his iconic "I Have a Dream" speech, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. called for an end to racism and for civil and economic rights. He emphasized his desire for freedom and equality, where one day all people would be judged by their character rather than their skin color. King envisioned a future where racial harmony was the norm, faith unshakable, justice and righteousness flowing like a mighty stream, and where freedom would ring from every mountainside. His dream was deeply rooted in the American dream of democracy and equality, aiming for a nation where oppression and discrimination no longer existed. August 28, 1963

What resonated most with you from his speech?
